Summary:-

The activity started in training the children the concept of the Girls Education, also by learning them the basics of the Hand ball sport. Children got that girls most complete studying because they are an important Component in the community. More over they learned something new about the hand ball sport. In the second day they got training in planning, the trainer used a movie that showed children the importance of the right planning.

Children learned that everyone should plan for his\her life or studying or whatever. Also they got more about the hand ball sport and they start playing it and enjoy it in a peace atmosphere. In the third day, children got training in the children rights; they got the laws and decisions that UN made for them. In fact children were very wondering that they were not know about a lot about their rights, after they finished the training, they directly started implement demands their rights from their families, brothers, and even we (the trainer). Also in this day they learned about the foot ball sport basics and laws. They play and enjoy it with each other. In addition, the trainers connect the concepts of leadership, communication, and team work concept with the sport to make emphasize on them. The fourth day was for the leadership and team work training. In this day children a wonderful leaders, everyone wanted to be a leader to lead others and solve problems if there as a team not as an individual. Also in this day, children learned about a new sport which is the volley ball sport.

They were very happy to know a new sport and start play it together with a big smiles and pleasures. They also learned how to play this sport in the right way and laws. In the final day, children were very happy, because they did not get any training and the second thing is that they played all the day (from the morning till the noon).

They were satisfied by what they learned and get from the activity like, leadership, girls education, and children rights. Now they are ready to implement what they learned from this activity and reflecting it in their personal life, with family or even in the school or with their friends. And also they are ready to play football, hand ball, and volley ball with their friends or families to reflect what they got from the activity in the summer period. And how this activity changed their thoughts and concept in sport, that how by using sport you can make unity and peace within the community.
